*CALL TO WORSHIP
L: The Apostle Paul writes that “our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit”;
P: “Therefore we honor God with our bodies.”
L: Jesus said we are to love God with all of our hearts, all our souls,
P: All our minds and all our strength.
L: Thank you God for bodies that live and move and have our being in you.
P: So we gather this morning to be whole in you: our hearts, souls, bodies.
L: Help us this day to renew our appreciation for the bodies and minds you have given us;
P: Grant us fresh energy today, and a renewed respect for our hearts.
L: Hearts which you have created, O Holy One;
P: Hearts with which we honor and praise you.
L: Let us worship this day thanking God for creating us.
P: Let us worship this day with all of who we are.

*HYMN #487 “When Morning Gilds the Skies”

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)
Source of all life and health and love, we come before you with contrite hearts. No matter how hard we try, we end up doing what we know is wrong, and we neglect to do what we know is right. And if we are honest, often we don't even try very hard. Soften our hardened hearts, O God, that we might be capable of receiving your message of love and reconciliation. Heal our grieving and wounded hearts and help us to love fully again. Strengthen our weary hearts that we might continue to work for your justice and proclaim your grace to a hurting world.
(silence is observed for reflection and prayer)

*ASSURANCE OF PARDON
L: Jesus knows our hearts and loves us anyway. His forgiveness heals us and transforms us for new life. Friends, believe the good news of the gospel: in Jesus Christ we are forgiven.
P: We are forgiven! This is good news! We give thanks to God with all our hearts.

*DOXOLOGY #592

*PRAYER OF DEDICATION (unison)
Accept these gifts O God, even as we recognize that they are but a small portion of what you first gave to us. Increase their effectiveness that the hungry might be fed, the lonely find friendship and that broken hearts be healed. In Jesus name and with his heart we pray. Amen.
